

To: C-Span

5/27/93

After writing to you many times I am pleased that you have stopped playing the German national anthem during House & Senate sessions.

Now I wish to object to the very sad music you always play during opening and quorum calls at the Senate & House.

There are plenty of peppier selections by American composers that need not sound so funereal.

Please try,
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Washington, DC 20007

Wren Building, College of William & Mary

002594 JUN 1993

C-Span
400 No. Capitol St.
N.W.

Washington, D.C.
20001