

Dear Bob Martinez

From

national Press - C - Span

18221

I just saw you on C Span talking about bringing drug dealers to justice. Good.
004283 SEP 27 91

Look at Footnote #14 enclosed that came from nod Davis & North Point Team; American Patriots who claim to have the facts & proof of Geo Bush & Reagan bringing in the drugs into America for profit via the CIA ships as you can plainly read #14.

You said virtue is to be taught by parents in families; if these allegations on Bush & Reagan are true (I hope not) then as you said justice will be done with corrective measures.

As an old paratrooper who loves God and country with our Constitution & Bill of Rights, I ask you in my name, my grandchildren & all decent Americans to investigate into these allegations & clear the air.

My nephew (Retired) was a Narcotics Detective in Newark N.J. & made movies for Paramount with Tom and in his name, where he was stabbed in the head, neck, & cheek & tongue fighting drugs, I ask you to take all measures to seek out the truth on this matter.

Also to look into the "CIA within the CIA" - in America, on Ted Shackley (assassination teams) Richard Armitage, Thomas Clines - Erik Von Marbod & Henry Kissinger (CFR tongue) - bring these to justice on the Laotian Van Poo Opium (Footnote 30) that sets up the so called Phoenix Project through selling drugs - I believe 50,000 innocent people were killed in that operation.

Like McCurdy said "we don't need Geo Bush's new World Order - we need a new American order - and back to the Constitution where a President does the will of the people & not his own will.
and he has to report to the people who have the authority. w/ Rower."

Let me show you how this treachery works. As you know, the U.S. Congress refuses to appropriate money to provide military aid to the Contras. Of course, under the Constitution, they have no right to spend federal funds for such unspecified matters. So, Col. North and the men working with him, rounded up older weapons from the U.S. National Guard Armories and had them shipped to Miami. There they were loaded into CIT Containers, marked "Empty", and sent by ship to Limon, Costa Rica. When they arrived in this port, it was Jose Maria Figueres, as a CIA-assigned task, to accept these "empty containers" and escort them to the Figueres Compound, "La Lucha...". On La Lucha there is a full-scale machine shop secured in a tunnel under a mountain where they manufacture replicas of the Ingram .45 automatic machinegun. It is there that they go through these American weapons, breaking them down as to condition and value. Some of the better weapons were liberated by the Figueres people, sort of like a personal import tax, and later sold on the streets of San Jose. Other weapons were trans-shipped across Nicaragua to the Communist Party revolutionaries in El Salvador. Figueres kept the very best for himself. Only the poorest quality or obsolete weapons were given to the ARDE (Socialist) Contras, because they were expendable. The Contras carrying these weapons would be sent into combat with far outnumbered Sandinistas and be killed systematically, and the expendable weapons lost. Such was the task of Jose Maria Figueres (Olson).

FOOTNOTE #11. Since first being published in January, 1988, and many hundreds circulated through Congress, not one conservative politician has dared to come forward and offer us a "Letter of Marque." With it, and the private funds it would generate, Nicaragua could still be freed. Now, however, we would need tactical support and the right for our Teams to operate directly from American soil. This, under the Neutrality Act, can not now be done.

FOOTNOTE #12. One year later, after the first 48 pages of HOPE'S HUSBAND was published, the computer block remains on my name. I think that is just fine. I know who I am. I suspect, however, once this part of HOPE'S HUSBAND gets wide circulation, there will be a renewed interest in what we have been doing. Those who read this footnote, and have access to the Federal Computers, will you run my name again and, in a plain envelope, send me the print-out? DOB 10/28/31.

FOOTNOTE #13. No further comment required at this time.

FOOTNOTE #14. At the time we were supplying the legitimate Contras, there was always a risk of being stopped on the high seas by the United States Coast Guard or other American shipping. They would, of course, be looking for drug shipments or other contraband. At that time, as the public is now learning through other sources, the Federal Government is directly involved in illegal drug shipments. To protect the ships

Also the biggest shame and evil.
would not be stopped by U.S. Coast Guard vessels, under orders directly from National Security. This is one of the ways that the CIA funds its covert operations, and has been doing so since before George Bush was the Director of the CIA. I will be discussing this CIA-operated drug trade in later Footnotes, but here it is important to know that from the viewpoint of those in Washington, drug money is a matter of National Security. The money "earned" from illegal drugs, such as cocaine from Latin America, and heroin from Asia, now accounts for about 20% of the gross "national product." It is used to pay off Latin American debt to the International Bankers, and pumps 6 thousand million (6 billion) into the Florida "economy" each year. Since it is going to be done, the CIA, with the full knowledge of Col. North, Reagan and George Bush, figures that they might as well make some of the profit. Hence, shipping carrying the CIA-approved drugs from Central and South America were, at the time of our supplying the legitimate Contras, instructed how to sail so that they would not be stopped on the high seas. Ordinary Mafia-owned drugs, and other smaller dealers, not knowing this fact, had their ships seized, and the cargo confiscated. Knowing this through our intelligence network, we directed "our" ships to also sail courses only on the four major points of the compass, and hence were not bothered. Our NORTHPOINT TEAMS, and those working with us, directly and indirectly, supplied more than (XX*) tons of military clothing, medical supplies, food and agricultural materials to the legitimate Contras from 1982 to date.

FOOTNOTE #15. "The bomb attack on Commander Zero's headquarters by CIA-trained operatives." I have printed a picture of this Nicaraguan traitor here. You need to know this man, Eden Pastora, for I predict that he will again emerge trying to take a leadership role among the "Contras." The bomb attack on his headquarters was on May 30, 1984, during one of his rare, in country, news conferences. In a press interview conducted in Costa Rica during the first week in May, 1987, Mr. Pastora identified Col. North as being behind the bombing, but that he knew "his death warrant had been signed" after his meeting with National Security Advisor Robert McFarland in February, 1984." Thus, according to Pastora, the orders for his death had come right down from Reagan's close advisors. Well, Pastora not only betrayed his Sandinista Associates, trying to take Command of the Sandinista Revolution in place of the Ortega Boys, but he also betrayed the CIA and their objectives.

Apocalypse Now

We are now on the very threshold of the new world order/one world government under the tyrannical anti-Christ predicted in Sacred Scripture unless we wake up. Here is important evidence you can verify for yourself.

The following article is composed of extracts taken from the July 1991 McIlvany Intelligence Advisor

"The final goal of world revolution is not Socialism or even Communism. It is not a change in the present economic system, it is not the destruction of civilization in a material sense. The Revolution desired by the leaders is a moral and spiritual revolution, an anarchy of ideas by which all standards set up throughout nineteen centuries shall be reversed, all honored traditions trampled under foot, and above all, the Christian ideal finally obliterated." Nesta Webster - in her book, Secret Societies and Subversive Movements.

"A nation can survive its fools and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within... A murderer is less to be feared." Marcus Cicero - the Roman patriot, speaking to his countrymen at a time of national peril.

"If it (the approach of danger) ever reaches us, it must spring up from among us; it cannot come from abroad. If destruction be our lot, we must ourselves be its author and finisher." Abraham Lincoln.

America in the early 1990s is rapidly being converted into a socialist police state - to be merged by the turn of the century (i.e. within nine years) into a one-world socialist government (called the "New World Order" by Bush and Gorbachev) under the United Nations and under the occultic New Age Movement.

Like the slowly boiled frog, most Americans (including most conservatives and Christians) cannot see the rapid deterioration of our basic freedoms, of our traditional way of life, of our Judeo-Christian values, and of our national sovereignty and independence. It is as if a whole generation of Americans, mesmerized and anaesthetized by 25-35 hours of television per week and decades of material prosperity, has been given over to a spirit of delusion or blindness.

As more and more socialist, collectivist, internationalist, anti-family, and un-constitutional laws, edicts, or bureaucratic rules and regulations proliferate, and are imposed upon the American people, it seems that the apathy and complacency of the great majority (including most Christians and conservatives) continues to grow just as rapidly. The American people, as the peoples of England, Europe, South Africa, Australia, and much of the so-called free world, seem to be well prepared to become obedient, docile slaves in the Orwellian world of people control which is emerging in the 1990s.

The New World Order/New Age movements have planned, strategized, and written in their secret meetings and writings for decades (if not centuries) that their ultimate goals were: 1) the abolition of all ordered government; 2) the abolition of private property; 3) the abolition of inheritance; 4) the abolition of patriotism; 5) the abolition of all religion; and 6) the abolition of the family. When these goals are achieved (they hope by the year 2000), the New World Order will emerge - the dawning of a New Age - the age of Aquarius. The New Age which is coming, whether carried along and nourished by the Illuminati, the US liberal establishment, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Trilateral Commission, the Club of Rome, the Bilderbergers, the Socialist International, or the Fabian Socialists, is characterized by deception, and by a supernatural, Satanic dynamic. This movement, which promises so much in the way of peace, prosperity, brotherhood, and world unity, will deliver precisely the opposite - death, destruction, slavery, and credible evil.

The 1990s are truly shaping up, as the decade of destiny - when we will see history's greatest collision between freedom and slavery, between truth and deception, between good and evil, and between God and Satan. Christians and other students of the Bible know which side will ultimately win; but between here and there lies great suffering, pain and convulsions. Christians, conservatives, and other freedom loving Americans need to prepare for a time of trial and test the balance of the 1990's unlike any time they have ever lived through, and they need to remember that they will ultimately be on the winning side.

This issue of MIA will examine several areas of coming conflict: America's plunge into socialism and a new currency and the thrust toward a cashless society and a one world banking and monetary system; computerization of all aspects of Americans' lives and the enslaving controls which will follow; and the Orwellian abolition of all privacy for Americans - financial and personal. A course of action will then be set out to protect yourself and your family as much as possible in the coming New World Order/New Age.

As will be discussed below, most tax offenses are about to be declared to be "money laundering", will be criminalized, and punishable by jail. Gun control violations will likewise be criminalized. Is this the new way to silence American dissenters, conservatives, Christians etc? Is this why George Bush has ordered the doubling of America's prison capacity? The war on crime, like the war on drugs, may not be a war against criminals at all - but a war against honest law abiding, patriotic US citizens - especially those who oppose the New World Order. Is this what it was like in Germany in the 1930's as the Nazi's were rising to power and a remnant of patriots opposed them?

[Ed.Note:All of these trends toward socialism, gun control, and police state controls over the American people will accelerate dramatically right after the 1992 Presidential election. The dark side of George Bush and his New World Order will begin to manifest in spades in early 1993. As international banker Paul Warburg told the US Senate(12/2/50): "We shall have a world government, whether we like it or not. The only question is whether it will be created by consent or by conquest." Save this issue of MIA and reread it in early 1993.

Part II: Toward a Cashless Society

Cash is freedom! The socialists and New World Order crowd understand that in order to completely control the people, they must monitor their spending and control their money. Hence, for decades the advocates of world government have been pushing for all financial transactions to be funnelled into the computerized banking or credit card system (first nationally and then globally), The cashless society means people control.

The new currency, about to be issued incoming months (or weeks), is simply a stepping stone, an intermediate step, to a global currency and central bank and ultimately to a computerize, cashless society-which is intrinsic to the New World Order/New Age dispensation which the globalists plan to usher in by the year 2000 or sooner.

Part III : The Computerization Of The American People

"He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name ... His number is 666." Apocalypse 13:16-18

To be victorious against the militant atheists' plot to enslave us in the New World Order we must realize that God has reserved this final victory to those who fight for Him under the banner of His Most Holy Mother Who will crush the serpent's (Satan's) head. (Genesis 3:15).

We live in the day of the computer. Computer knowledge, speed of processing, and technology is now doubling every two years. This tremendous explosion in computer technology and gathering of information has set the stage where all sensitive personal and financial information about you will be centralized and available for review.

For years, the government collected vast amounts of sensitive information about you but was not able to make full use of the information because managing and correlating this material was impossible. All that has changed with the computerization of virtually all government files. This process happened at a rapid speed in all levels of government and in the private sector over the past 10 years. The banks, credit agencies, insurance companies, all types of stores and businesses, and general employers now have access to these records, which within seconds can give massive quantities of sensitive information about you.

Part and parcel of this total computerization of all information is the cashless society, where by computers will electronically transfer credits and debits. As credits and debits are electronically transferred to and from your different financial accounts, no "real money" will change hands - there will be no need for cash because computers will electronically conduct the transactions. The need for cash and checks will evaporate. today, upwards to three fourths of all banking is done electronically. The US government electronically

Dear C-Span

Why is there a lack of the Press asking the basic questions to Bush, on the who, what, when, where, why, and to what extent the "new World Order" is all about?

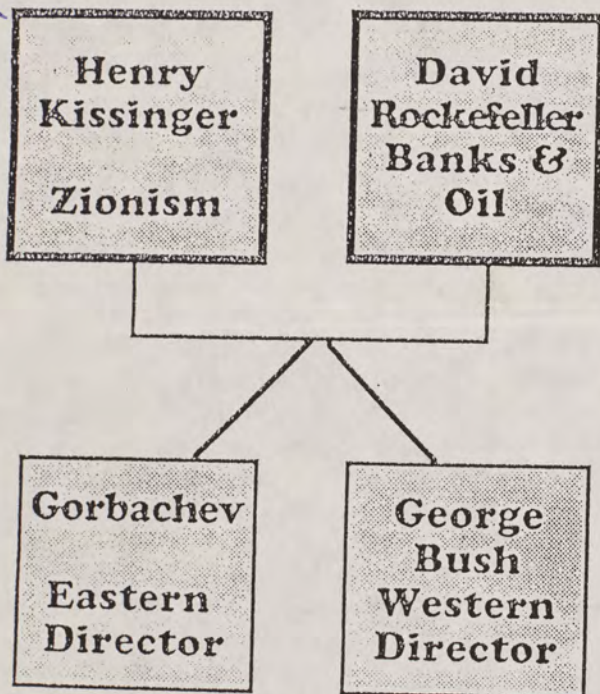

All we get is Pablum on this priority issue that will be detrimental to all peoples and especially American Rights of Sovereignty according to these reports.
Please dig out the facts

Kissinger as CFR's tongue

TIMES, showing Henry Kissinger and Gorbachev shaking hands. This photograph was taken in Moscow, on January 19, 1989 after a top secret meeting. So far as I know, only two other publications carried this photograph and the unusual story surrounding it. One was Lawrence Patterson's CRIMINAL POLITICS. He is a courageous publisher with a private newsletter* from Cincinnati, Ohio. The second publication was our ENCORE section of HOPE'S HUSBAND.

By that handshake, Gorbachev agreed that the Consulate Of Two Men, the two Co-Chairmen of the New World Order, was set in place on January 19, 1989. From that time on, the world has secretly been under the control of the New World Order finally disclosed by George Bush in his recent infamous speech. Shown here is the chain of command with two men at the top:

The Consulate of Two Men

*Patterson Strategy Organization, PO Box 37812, Cincinnati, Ohio 45222. ($185.50 per year - 12 issues.) Highly recommended by us though we may not always agree on all points.

Everything you will see happening from now on will fit exactly into this chain of command. Kissinger and Rockefeller will remain silent and behind the scenes. Gorbachev and Bush will be travelling the globe under directions of this Consulate of Two Men. Of the two top men, which is Iron and Clay? Does it really matter? My guess is that Zionism is the most well organized and will eventually win when the warfare at the top between the people of the Six-Pointed Star and those of the Five-Pointed Star finally takes place. So, Kissinger, the man who advised Presidents for years regardless of their political party, must represent the Iron. Gorbachev below him has always been known as "Iron Teeth" since his days with the KGB. All you have to do is watch George Bush and you will know who "Clay" is.

With this chart fixed in your mind, you will understand why George Bush has travelled to more than 23 nations since he was sworn in as President during the week of the 19th of January, 1989. If you do not see Bush and Gorbachev as mere employees of the New World Order, you will be forever confused by the news commentators whose foolish statements I pointed out earlier in this pamphlet. If you do not see Gorbachev as the Eastern Director, how can you explain his curious actions, seemingly repudiating the Marxist-Leninist line and opting for some form of capitalist supply side economics in the Soviet Union? Why otherwise would he go to China when the USSR and China have not "spoken" for 25 years ---until after the 19th of January, 1989. This athiest even went to see the Pope. Do you think he somehow found God? No, only proven world socialists, like Kissinger, King and Gorbachev ever receive the Nobel Peace Prize. It is always given to them at exactly the right time in history to elevate their stature.

Do you really think that after all these years of hard-line Marxist-Leninist education that the whole communist world finally saw the light, and turned from their wicked ways? Christian, is Babylon really reformable? Did you ever wonder why it seems that everyone is crying, "Peace! Peace!" and there is no peace?

every aspect of their lives under constant surveillance twenty-four hours a day. Big Brother totally abolished all aspects of privacy.

"It is ironic that in a day when communist regimes all over Eastern Europe, which have practiced Big Brother's techniques for decades, "appear" to be disintegrating, that the USA, under George Bush, is moving to institute these same KGB- style techniques - all in the name of protecting the people from a series of society-threatening crises. We have the drug crisis, the environmental crisis, the global warming crisis (even though the world is growing colder), the terrorist crisis, the crime crisis, etc. - and Big Brother must protect the American people from these crises.

"Each of these crises is an excuse for a clique of liberal politicians and bureaucrats to place draconian, socialist controls on every aspect of Americans' lives. In the socialist America of the 1990's, Big Brother wants to scrutinize every move Americans make, monitor every transaction, and ultimately regulate every decision. Money and its free uninhibited flow is the lifeblood of a capitalist society, and if Big Brother can monitor and control that flow, he can control the society. Ordinary citizens who resist will be branded as criminals, (i.e., money launderers) and dealt with accordingly."

In the book, Privacy and Freedom, first published in 1967, Professor Alan Westin makes a strong case for viewing privacy as an essential human requirement, common in some form to all cultures and necessary to the maintenance of a correct "psychological balance". People, organizations and governments must have some privacy in order to function properly. It is interesting that the first thing the communists did when they took over in Russia and China was to destroy all forms of privacy. They set up spy networks where neighbors would inform on neighbors - just as the Bush Administration is doing today as they encourage bank employees and coin dealers to spy on customers and report any "suspicious behavior". Despots must destroy privacy in order to control people.

In the Soviet Union, the KGB watches everyone do everything virtually all the time. This draconian Machiavellian system of people watching and controls (complete with Soviet-style ID cards) is coming to America in the 1990's as America plunges into socialism and toward the New World Order and merger with the Soviet Union.

The proliferation of extraordinary computer technology and other high tech devices is making it possible for a socialistic US government to monitor all aspects (financial and personal) of the American peoples' lives, to abolish privacy, and within a very few years to totally control the people.

George Bush and Mikhail Gorbachev both want to impose on all of us the one world government New World Order. Read this article to find out how terrible that is.

Conclusion

George Orwell's 1984, is rapidly emerging in America in the early 1990's, ushered in by George Bush and his socialist, New World Order associates in the Administration, the Congress, and the government bureaucracy. As America and Russia move toward "Merger of our common interests", America is becoming more like the Soviet Union everyday. The socialists in control of America (both Republicans and Democrats), if they continue their current thrust, will deprive Americans of virtually all of our freedoms (financial and otherwise) and turn us into slaves before the decade of the 1990's is over. And they will do it all in the name of good, in the name of protecting us from the drug crisis, the financial crisis, the environmental crisis, the crime crisis, etc.

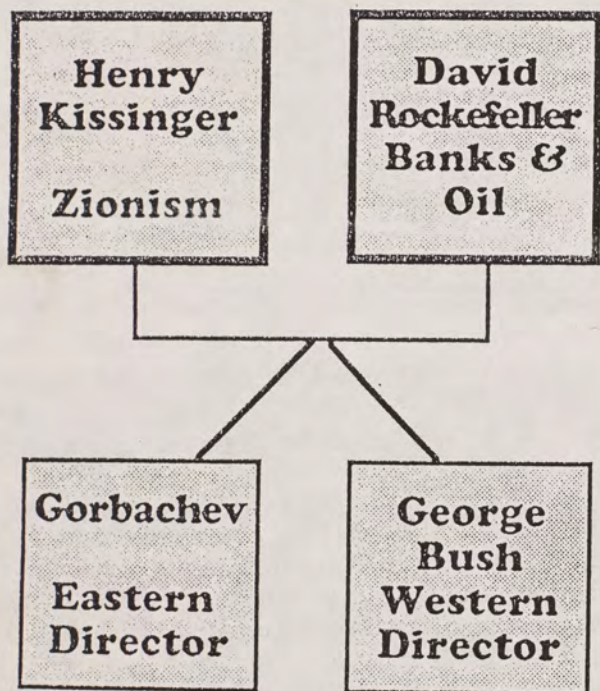

Most Americans who grew up in this country over the last 30-40 years are honest, law abiding citizens who have never committed a crime, don't cheat on their taxes, have loved their country and government, and have cheered when the police have tracked down criminals. Most of us are very pro-law enforcement, pro-police, pro-FBI, etc. (And that includes this writer.) But, why don't we cheer when the police and government agents in Russia and China track down and jail their citizens? Because those citizens are by and large innocent of any crime and those governments are evil and repressive. Today, in America, honest law abiding citizens are being declared to be criminals by a US government which is out of control and plunging toward socialism, and the police and government agents who are supposed to protect our rights are beginning to act more and more like their counterparts in the Soviet bloc.

If one backs away from the details and looks at the big picture, at America's current urge to disarm and merge, at the gun control juggernaut, at the move toward a cashless society, abolition of financial privacy, and socialistic controls over most aspects of our lives, a very ominous picture is emerging with respect to freedom in America. Are we destined to enter the next century as slaves living in a police state? ■

The Communist Party of the United States was formed in 1919. It's goal: World Socialist Government. In the same year, another group was formed called the COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS. Its goal was the same: World Socialist Government. In the past 60 years, the stated objectives of this CFR has never changed, and is set forth again and again in its monthly publication FOREIGN AFFAIRS. This group has always worked closely with the Communist Party, for they have exactly the same goal, but differing somewhat on the means to arrive at that end. They cooperated in the formation of the United Nations for this reason, for it was to be the skeleton, the beginning needed for the totalitarian socialist government planned by these two, seemingly very different, groups. It is that Thought-Theology of world government that makes the world Communists and the CFR have a common cause. The men listed here are all members in good standing of this subversive COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS. Note that I have selected men who have reputations of being liberal and conservative, Republican and Democrat, and impartial as news people. They deliberately take slightly different public positions, but privately their actions are always dedicated to this world government Thought-Theology they hold, and it supercedes all other political and economic thinking. It is this Thought-Theology that is taught at all U.S. Military Academies, Ivy League and Big Ten colleges, and is woven into every news story in print or on TV.

Junior military officers do not have a huge dose of this Thought-Theology, but once they approach the rank of Colonel or Navy Commander they are taught this subversive world government scheme, and if they do not embrace it, quite frankly they are passed over and not promoted further. President Eisenhower was a key member of this group and a communist, Joseph Fels Barnes, was the ghost-writer of this book, Crusade in Europe. Once you begin to understand that it is this over-riding Thought-Theology that has directed our national policy, regardless of the political party of the President in power, you will begin to see why we are sending "foreign aid" to 140 nations, many of which, like Poland, are openly Communist. This is why no
