

Dear CNN C-Span

Good Morning

I watch CNN-C-span and most all of the other News Channels.

I have a few questions and also a Comments I would like to make,

Question #1. Why are all the people that disagree with the presidents wrong doings labeled as Clinton Haters?

2[#] Do these people really believe that Mr Clinton ~~as~~ his people are above leaking to the press?

Mr Clinton is the Victim of his & his Alone Cowardly and illegal deeds. He is Very good at placing somebody in a Very precarious Condition, then leaving them hanging, Everybody knows these Names as well as I.

There's an old saying - if you play around with a striped Kitty you will smell like one.

Just once I would like to see him be a Man. He could stop all this nonsense if He Could and Would be a Man.

Allegations, allegations, sure right now that's what they are, but we also know that Mr. Clinton is a proven liar and coward. No allegations here, this is a proven fact. Once a liar always a liar.

what really makes me sick, is the people that say, I don't care what he does. they are ONLY protecting the party and as usual his hiding behind some one else. (Clinton) I'm glad we have a Mr. Star or anybody else that will keep in check the kind of — — — that's going on. And if this person was an Independent or Republican all these cry babies would be asking for his head, it's too bad that so many people have their head stuck in the sand or (elsewhere) (keeping this part clear) that they refuse to see this person as he really is and what he is.

I did not vote for Clinton or Dole. I voted for Ross ~~per~~ and would again and independent and proud of it. I vote for the person NOT PARTY these people are supposed to serve the people NOT the party.

I keep hearing that we're in the best shape than we've been in years. if this is true why were there more Chapter 13rd filed last year than ever before?

Mr Clinton may be the lead dog and out front, but the dogs that are actually pulling the sled deserve most of the ~~Credit~~ credit, but do not receive it.

Personally I would like to see more of the people represented that doesn't agree with the white House, but it seems we have no voice or very little, but the ones that want Mr Stars head are heard loud and clear. we have much better people to run our Country than what we have now. I would much rather have Mr Gore take over. and Mr Clinton can return to Arkansas & the rock he came out an under from. He has made lies out of a lot of people that would not normally lie, just to protect him and the party, this is Sad

This mess is & has separated our Country its time for the Democrats to ask Mr Clinton to go.
