Dear C-SPAN:

This is my second letter to C-SPAN. My first concerned the Kimberly Begalis Aids Committee Hearing. I first had to write to complement C-SPAN in this case.

I'm writing in response to the coverage shown on your station during the Thanksgiving weekend of November 29-31.

The coverage you carried was fantastic, interesting, new, innovative and different. Not the same old topics, the same old people. Some of the interesting shows were:

- 1) Sex and The First Amendment (Jessica Mitford)
- 2) The Guam Abortion Court Proceedings
- 3) The Aids Commission Conference
- 4) The Progressive Students Action Conference
- 5) The Responsibility of the Media - Discussion in Boston
- 6) The Role of Research Universities

Please show more programs of this kind. C-SPAN seems to be the only place great programs of this kind is carried.

I've been an avid watcher of C-SPAN I & II for many years. I guess I'm one of these C-SPAN junkies. I can only say you keep getting better and better.

I've always voted; since I was 18.
However, because of C-SPAN I have never been so interested in politics. I even worked in the Democratic campaign in the last presidential campaign.

Thank you for your excellent coverage and keep up the good work.

Thank you,
