Dear C-SPAN,

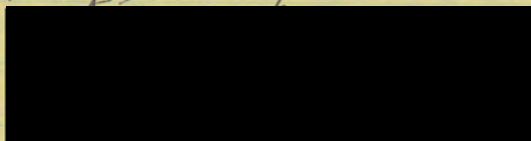

I don't think I have ever seen anything like it. This eternal and continuous "Clinton-bashing" that goes on in the media these days. It seems that there is a conspiracy between the media and the thumb-sucking republicans to discredit this man no matter what he does. Your show was turned into a gossip column. When I saw you guys those reporters on the gossip story that had been published in England and then picked up by your beloved "mooney paper" I said that's it and off you went. I have never heard such rot that comes out of those shows that deal with the cause and effect of Washington.

If you sit there and let the Republicans use you to discredit everything this man does then you deserve "Phil Graham" for a president, and he is an idiot. Maybe he could get "Rash Lardbelle" commonly known among the right wing as Rust Limbaugh to run as vice president then you, Washington, the mooney paper and all of the media that has been bought by the corporations will be happy. Who could possibly care about the people of America, they will make good peons since most of them have the intelligence of a stump and have to be told what to think. And the elite media that you have on your show will love someone of his ilk.

So I'll turn you on again, occasionally and see if the thamb-suckers are still using you. And the inside the beltway media is still dealing in malicious gossip. Most of the papers in this area of the country, and I think throughout the Midwest are hopelessly "Republican right" and they play it to the hilt. The "haves" are not interested in anyone but themselves.
And it looks like you and the entire Washington press corp are doing everything they can to make sure it stays that way.

Respectively

P.S. I bought a satellite dish just to watch C-SPAN. PAH! Shows how saved my money.
