

Please give more air time to people on the Left. They're 100 million times more interesting than the Right. The people on the Right keep telling us the same lies over and over again. The Congressional hearings are so boring, they put people in a coma. There are a few good people in the Congress, but not enough to make a difference.

People like Gore Vidal, Dr. Michael Parenti, John Stockwell (former operations director for the CIA) are stimulating and informative
