RNC CHAIRMAN LEE ATWATER TO APPEAR ON C-SPAN CALL-IN PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Republican National Committee Chairman Lee Atwater appears live Thursday, May 11, from 6:30 p.m. to 7:15 p.m. EDT on C-SPAN's international call-in program.

Mr. Atwater, who was President Bush's 1988 presidential campaign manager, now serves as the GOP's chief political strategist. On the call-in program, he will be available to answer questions about current political issues from the viewing audience.

C-SPAN, the Cable-Satellite Public Affairs Network, is available in some 43.5 million U.S. homes and in more than 100 foreign countries via satellite. The network covers all U.S. House floor proceedings live in their entirety and features three hours of live call-in programs daily.

U.S. viewers may call with questions and comments for Mr. Atwater during the program on the following numbers:

Eastern and Central time zones: 202-628-2525

Pacific and Mountain time zones: 202-783-2727
