Dear Buon Lomb:

I am a Member of United We Stand America of South Carolina. I happen to be the [redacted] elected [redacted] for our STATE.

I had the opportunity to know just how much "Grossrats" dictate the STATE Elections. Even if it was a tough job to have a "Constitutional Convention", it was harder to be elected the Convention Chairman, with no thought beyond hand, on that special occasion.

There were 3 people - who were hired by Dallas National Office. OUR STATE Director, OUR Southeast Regional Director - and a Dallas Membership Coordinator. At no time did they attempt to tell me what to do - when there was a question that rumbled in the hallway, they asked me to explain my thoughts and the only thing they were concerned with was that it was a democratic process. They were very low key background.

Believe me it is NOT Top Down - but definitely grassroots.

Ire of UWSA appreciate your time in discussions with Ross Perot and also the Booknotes piece on Ross Perot's People.

Mr. Perot has not been allowed to buy time - which seems deficient to understand, especially when there are such stations as Public Broadcasting.

So again thank you for airing a Conversation with Ross Perot - If you ever choose to do a series on the Volunteers - we'd welcome your C-Span Bus to Greenville, S. Carolina.

C-Span is commendable and should be required viewing for all schools
during your Congressional coverage.
