Dear Sir,

I cannot see booknotes because, locally at 8PM until 12am EWTN switches to a Catholic program. Do you ever have as a guest, a writer who has a publication dealing with the New Age movement? I have just read Donna Steichens' "The Ungodly Rage" published by Ignatius Press.

It was pretty scary. I won't go into detail of the effect and goal this movement has ^{had} on all the main-line churches including the Roman Catholic Church. The feminists have captured positions of leadership, as teachers in colleges such as Notre Dame.

your guest this past week Betty Frieden has had years to espouse her beliefs in the printed press. ^{on the lecture circuit.} All the established religions have slowly been infiltrated with, and infected by intellectuals who mean to destroy Christian beliefs.

Read Donna Stiechens' "Ungodly Rage" and be convinced, the ~~the~~ Catholic Church is on its way to oblivion.

I am a Episcopalian, who moved to the only Anglican Catholic Church in Western New York, only to find it too has slowly eliminated those beliefs that separated Church from State. We do not need prayer in schools! We need secularism & State out of our churches. The church hierarchy have abdicated their leadership because the press & the TV media paint them as dinosaurs and repressors of freedom.
The truth is the press is in the business of ridiculing the very things that unite our country. I am 73 years old & have fought for meaningful education and also my church.

I have lost on both counts. The political left, the religious left, the educational left, reign supreme.

What's left!

Sincerely
