

Westfield New Jersey 07090
April 27, 1994

C Span
400 North Capitol St NW
Suite 650
Washington DC 20001

Dear C Span Managing Director

The commentary provided by Mr. Witcover was mean spirited and nasty.
The C Span hostess, in response to the public outcry, called his commentary
"a critique" (or critical analysis). However, there were no accurate assessment of merits & faults. It was a severely ugly analysis.

Mr. Witcover never once said a complimentary word.
Rather, he used any incident or story as a jumping-off point to disparage Mr. Dixon. He reminded me of a petulant child who flaunts out angrily & nastily with little provocation. It sounded, as though he was still fighting the war of the Sixties.

You must take the blame for providing him with a front row center, lengthy (2-3 HRS??) forum in which to provoke your listeners & viewers.

Mr. Nixon made error but his accomplishments were laudatory.
Certainly in showing us the nation's farewell to a past president and acknowledged statesman, C Spain's choice of Mr. Witcover gave us a feeling that you concurred in his views & perspective.

Personally, I recoiled during the length of his commentary.
I was glad to see that I was not alone in feeling affronted.

If you must..... Save Mr. Witcover for a panel discussion. But...
Why save him, at all?
Sincerely,