For what it is worth I wrote Pres G. Bush to ask quote "Does the Constitution say Debates are necessary."

This bunch of Liberals Steppery Client. ^{etc} in Control for 50+ yrs of both Houses of Congress!! I don't trust "them", the "Media", the Special "Interests" & the Control of both Houses by Liberals what a Mess whose fault is it ??? The backing of the President day in & day out was debating. The President answered each relative question put — over

Why didn't Big Wigs of Liberal Democrats run for Pres. Ashamed (Endlock) they were - so let Steffery Willie & H Gore & his Book writing as Pit Bulls.

So Mr President &
CNN a level playing field? !!!

I think & don't Trust Perot.
He might lose by 25
Billion. - so his Ego trips obnoxious - not genuine. Like La Dang in Viet Nam said to Brian Lambert (Resist to Viet Program, quote The Americans are nice people but dumb. How true hearing them on Cable talk shows etc.

Id go for Congressional House Meeting - where President could give his Program so all the People could hear - no hunky Panky - as it would be recorded word for word. Even Call ins -

I don't trust a Liberal the like of Job first Country 2nd. You don't hear them concerned about the Nation // Their Job first.

The Iron Triangle so evident #1 Media #2 Special #3 Liberal Democratic Party in Control of both House? // ^{Interests}
It is said "They" wanted this Depression a Whole wide spread to flourish so "they" could enter the Oval Office. Witness how distasteful. over

Blame Bush, day in & Day out "Gloom & Doom"

I did write to White House it is evident at ex. the call in how little the Electorate knows of Government.

Pocket book issues yes, but now in this Global World Wide aspect things are up tight.

Pres Bush's job National Security & Veto. Constitution

Congress Constitution Legislative body & Powers of the Purse. What did Congress do???

5x L. 701C 7SLIC, Hup Student Loan Default is their choosing.

No Debates I say,

Media Feeds on itself!!
