

Dear Brian Lamb:

25 JULY 2005

You did us all another great disservice on your stupid Q & A. This show is a disaster, but, your idiot Nielsen viewers obviously love it. (they also love that Emmy nominated trash wallow, Desperate Housewives) Sitting through that ugly old windbag, Kenneth Teplin, was a bit much. Your softball questions reminded me of David Brinkley at his worst. I care nothing for trash like Chris Matthews or Bill O'Reilly but they do dig deep & get some talk. You just sat there, old & bored, while Teplin trotted out his partyline, that Bill Meyers's Show was too liberal. As Meyers himself said, "Teplin saw the truth & it clashed with his conservatism. He didn't like that his vision wasn't the truth." That's what Meyers did, the truth. Can we count on conservatives for truth? We know we can't get truth from Bush, Jr. We never get truth from any president. That's why I keep hoping you'll clean up C-Span & get a better product for us all. (you could dash that stupid Road to the White House, 2008. We don't need this trash) Anyway, all good wishes.

BEST
