

Dear Mr. Lamb,

Thank you for C-Span and the wonderful work you do.

I've recently seen on the news something that has bothered me a great deal. No one played a greater role in ending the Cold War than Edward

Shevardnadze and now it seems possible that he will end his days, mostly unnoticed, at the hands of Russian armed rebels in a bombed out Georgian city. And no one seems to be noticing this. ~~Is there~~ Is there nothing to be done to draw attention to this? Thanks,
