

Please don't have that Layton man on Friday mornings again - or other egoistic zealots.
It ruins an hour and a half of contemplation developed by journalistic colleagues/experts. Ever since its inception, I have looked forward to this weekly program and arranged to be free for its entire span.

Not only does Mr. Layton try to usurp the program, your camera seemed intrigued w/ him to the extent it encouraged his clownishness. Friday a.m. is a Round Table, not World Class Wrestling.
Very sincerely,
