

HUNTINGTON, INDIANA

J. Danforth Quayle became the 44th Vice President of the United States on January 20, 1989 and served for one term until 1993. The Dan Quayle Center and Museum, dedicated October 16, 1993, houses the Dan Quayle Commemorative Foundation.

IN 46802 DCR#

I watched your show in its entirety on D-DAY and it was great.

Thanks so much for airing this program. I called a neighbor of mine that was an infantry Captain and was wounded near St. Mere Eglise. He too appreciated it so much. Hope your cameras are there JUNE 6th, '94.

Photos by JOLENE WEAVER

C-SPAN

400 N. CAPITOL ST NW
650
WASHINGTON, D.C.

20001

The DAN QUAYLE

Commemorative Foundation, Inc.

HUNTINGTON IN 46750

DAN QUAYLE CENTER AND MUSEUM

