Dear Brian,

Whatever happened to Booknotes?

I tuned in March 3, 1996 and saw Rodham Clinton give her deposition in the wrongful claim suit for public attention.

Impressed, was I? NOT!

Please bring back Booknotes and let the public hear about subjects of general interest written by people who write their own books and who otherwise might not come to our attention. Rodham-Clinton is a poseur and an actress and not deserving by comparison.
