Dear Brian:

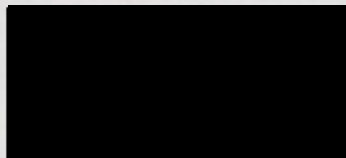

As a general rule I enjoy your programming. It is an opportunity to hear both sides of the issues. I will confess that Sen Byrd prompts me to switch channels but I do force myself into listening to the likes of Kennedy and Sasser. Sen. Gramm of Texas is my bell-weather. What is good for Gramm is good for me!

Usually I enjoy your Friday morning call-in involving news reporters. There is a give and take of opinion. Today I was disappointed. There was not the normal balance. It was a love-in for Clinton. The reporter for the Chicago Tribune slobbered excuses for all Clinton's failures of omission or commission; the lady for USA Today was predictable in all her remarks -pro Democrat, anti Republican; the girl for the Houston paper didn't seem to know what was going on.

I realize it is not always possible to obtain a balanced panel but acknowledging it is very important to your objectivity. I have heard you do it. Unfortunately, although Susan is a great hostess, she did not.

As an aside--I particularly enjoy your Booknotes. The breadth of the reading and the depth of the review is great. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Boise, Idaho 83709
