Dear C-Span-

I'm a college sophomore (about to be a junior) and I have never written a TV station or network to praise them before. When I missed the debate last night, due to class, I wasn't worried because I knew I could see it on C-Span. When I missed the vice-presidential debate... ditto! Thank you. What really inspired me to write you, though, is something I just watched. It was a survey of opinions of students from Douglas S. Freeman High School in Richmond, Va. Great show! Young people's opinions are important, too. It felt like a piece of history (as most of your programming is). It was the "icing on the cake" to all your excellent programming. In addition to seeing the House of Representatives in action, I enjoy watching your broadcasts of the British Parliament. From some time back, I liked the piece you did traveling from radio show to radio show giving a behind the scenes look at both shows we get here in Houston and those we don't.

It gave me a behind the scenes look at that master entertainer — Rush Limbaugh. (What a hilarious guy!) Well, I've never written a +v personality... or a rock star (even in my youth)... but I am writing C-Span!
Thanks again!
