Dear C-Span:

I cannot believe what I just saw on your morning program .
The Sleaze!

The Inuendos!

The Filth!

The Leering Glee of Mr. Brock and Your Interviewer!

The self-serving and self-promotion of Mr. Brock with your willing assistance!

The unprincipled and thoughtless attempt to demean the President of the United States!

I have watched C-Span for, I guess, at least the past three years; I've admired you. I've been interested enough to write several times. But, this is the end. You have stooped to the lower depths of tabloid rags. You have promoted the incredible filth of Mr. Brock and his ilk. You have raised the sleazy attempt of a few cops and their filth peddling writer co-conspirator at extortion of the President of the United States to an undeserved level of "important" news.

It is filth and you should know it. I'm ashamed of you and ashamed of myself for having been taken in by what seemed a class act only a few months ago. You guys belong on the stand by the checkout counter in the local bodega.

Could you really believe that the White House would send anyone to sit in the same room with your filthy Mr. Brock and his leering and equally filthy interviewer?

You had at least a dozen real news stories you could have covered this morning - but you chose Filth!
Shame, shame, shame!

Yours Truly,
[REDACTED]
