Dear Brian,

I understand you are president of C-Span and you all say you are not partisan but you do not prove it for you have Conservative Republicans on $\frac{2}{3}$ of your call-in programs and there is always two to one on your Roundtable discussions. You ought to remember people calling in telling you the same thing but it does no good. You always hold every paper you can get ahold of. If the headline has the word Democrat, in it, you even hold up a paper with Tom Foley in the gym and you had the journalist discuss it. I think this was a very nasty thing to do for you never discuss Pres. Bush running with his shorts on. Susan does the same thing.

but if anyone calls ⁱⁿ criticism of Bush and Reagan they are shut off very quickly and you don't ~~see~~ ^{left} let anyone say anything against them like you do any Democrat.
I can see by the expression on your face ^{how you feel} and sometime you don't ^{leave} ~~lead~~ it to the headlines you read part of the column. Susan did that on the Roundtable, ^{guilty} she read almost a whole column that had Democrat in the headline. She even held the paper toward the cameras while she ran her finger down each line she wanted us all to know what it was. I reckon, well, we are not dumb nor deaf ^{nor blind} and we can see the tactics you let Republicans use against the Democrats day after day and week after week.

I enjoyed the American profile with Jim Wright and I am so glad he didn't fall into the trap you set for him by asking about Kent Kingich ^{stirring} people like you in interviews just keep the fires going instead of letting them go out and let ~~you~~ ^{him} all move forward instead of backward.

I think C. Span should go on the air and tell us the interview with John Connally was not about him all we found out of John ^{was} that he was a governor of Texas and he tried to run the country when Lyndon Johnson was president but we sure found out about John & Bobby Kennedy.
~~Bruce~~ Bruce is always pretty fair until Sunday (July 7) discussing the ~~redistricting~~ congressional redistricting and Mr. Mann was so far to the right I expecting him fall over the ^{edge} any minute and Mr. Evin was right behind him. Mr. Mann said the word Democrat or Democratic party about 25 times in the time they were on. Every state they talked about Bruce would ask how it was going to affect the Democrats it was never asked about the Republicans. Mr. Mann had the longest tongue I every saw. He just took the floor. Mr. Young hardly got a chance to say anything.

Brian the 28th of June on the Journalist Roundtable you held up a paper with ^{the} headline about there might be an investigation about the 1980 election and you did not read the article you just let the journalists leave the impression ^{that} Democrats were asking for it. I saw the conference which C-Span carried and I saw Mr. Moorhead Kennedy (who said it was not "Bush Bashing" for he was a lifetime Republican. I saw them read the letter signed by 8 hostages and they said there would be more sign the letter. I saw them give it to Rep. Derrick and they asked him if he would see ^{that} a further investigation would be done. Why did you not tell of the C-Span viewers that maybe did not see the conference or you could have read what they did. I think you should clear this up.
