Mr. Bryan Lamb:

I watch C-Span all the time and since you have the new format talking about stories ~~newspaper stories~~ in the newspaper, it is almost all liberal. Since almost all newspapers are liberal, that's the only story we hear. The only Conservative newspaper I know that you may have is the Washington Times.

This Roll Call group are all liberals as far as I've seen. They giggle and carry on very unprofessionally, too.

When you try to balance a program by having Kevin Phillips on as a Republican, you know it's a big joke. He's the most liberal of all liberals.

Bob Packwood has resigned now so I'm sure that makes the media and so-called women's groups very happy.
