O-Hig. Impeach

November 20, 1998

Thoughts About the Impeachment Hearings and All That Went with ~~them~~ them.

It's all so boring and Repetitious. The Republicans and all those opposed to Clinton and his vision are saying the same things that have been said from the beginning. The Democrats and all the people ^{who} ~~to~~ believe in the President and his vision are saying the same thing they have said from the beginning.

If I understand what was said yesterday, the real issues that might have been impeachable, Whitewater and the other issues, were found to clear Clinton of any unlawful involvement.

I've felt all along that the real issues that would have affected the Presidency had no merit — that's the reason for the emphasis on the sex thing!

People keeps saying "Ordinary citizens would be in jail if they had lied under oath. Ordinary Citizens would never have been placed in the position Mr Clinton was forced into by his enemies. Ordinary Citizens would never have been asked those questions under these circumstances."

I only know one person who is willing to talk about Clintons — my sister and we agree.

The woman in my club thinks he is just another good looking guy who has been chased by women all his life — what do women expect?

I have one friend who was in a Japanese Concentration Camp for a time. He hates Clinton with a Passions, which is understandable.

My Republican friends are Republicans. My Democrat friends are Democrats, but none of them care much about politics one way or the other. Politics, Election, Hearings etc.
have no impact on their life so far as we can see. That attitude applies to most of my family as well.

In 87 years old, I have Children,
And great grand children
grand children, Nieces and nephews and their children. I know many of their friends, Co-workers, etc. None of these people ~~feel~~ ^{seem} to be worried much about National or world affairs.

Family, Jobs, School, Church,
— these things are about all they can cope with.

They expect, local, County, State and National government leaders to

to do what they are supposed to do. If these institutions work like they are supposed to work, they accept the results and live with them.

Things like this Clinton thing just makes them more indifferant to the process.

I did want to say something about the comments I have heard: The President's ~~Attorn~~ Attorneys have made no attempt to defend his actions. His actions cannot be defended. Every body knows and accepts the fact — he did wrong.

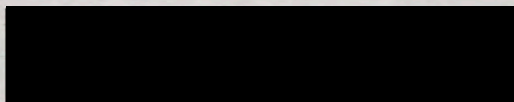

However, everybody knows that since Biblical times to the present — leaders have had feet of clay, but they helped their people and their countries and life moved on.

The use of Clinton's acts for political purpose is the issue and many, many, people don't like it.

If you have read this far — thanks
you for Taking the time to read my Comments. I'm having Trouble with my eyes the last few days — I didn't Always stay on the lines + other problems.

I love C-Span. I do get tired of the same thing over and over. That's not your fault. It seems that no matter how hard you try to focus on other issues, you are forced to go back to the Sex thing — Maybe I'm just too old to be interested in Sex.

Sincerely

Another issue is the huge amount of money that has been spent. Just think "how many children, K- thru Two years of College" could have been educated!
