

NEWS FROM:

C-SPAN AMERICA'S NETWORK

Suite 155 • 400 N. Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001

Release: IMMEDIATE
May 18, 1987

Contact: Susan Neal
Nan Gibson
(202) 737-3220

--C-SPAN ANNOUNCES PROMOTIONS AND NEW PERSONNEL--

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- C-SPAN continues its growth with expansion in the programming department and changes in the marketing and production areas. C-SPAN President Paul FitzPatrick recently announced network promotions and additions:

Programming

Carrie Collins, C-SPAN Executive Producer, takes on the additional responsibility of Capitol Hill Correspondent.

Terry Murphy has been promoted to Director of Programming from Director of Program Operations. His new position includes editorial responsibility for C-SPAN programming.

Sarah Trahern joins the programming department as a Guest Coordinator for C-SPAN's daily call-in programs. Most recently, she was a freelance Assistant Producer for Capitol Broadcast News.

Production

Craig J. Harrington, with five years of service, has been elevated to Studio Production Manager from Master Control Crew Chief. He will supervise master control, studio productions and editing.

Marketing

The marketing department adds Greg Hill as Affiliate Services Coordinator. Prior to this, Mr. Hill was Marketing Promotions Manager for Cable TV Network of New Jersey.

C-SPAN's round-the-clock public affairs offerings are currently available in over 28 million households, via some 2,500 affiliated cable systems.

# #

NEWS FROM:

C-SPAN AMERICA'S NETWORK

Suite 155 • 400 N. Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001

Release: IMMEDIATE
May 18, 1987

Contact: Susan Neal
Nan Gibson
(202) 737-3220

--C-SPAN ANNOUNCES PROMOTIONS AND NEW PERSONNEL--

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- C-SPAN continues its growth with expansion in the programming department and changes in the marketing and production areas. C-SPAN President Paul FitzPatrick recently announced network promotions and additions:

Programming

Carrie Collins, C-SPAN Executive Producer, takes on the additional responsibility of Capitol Hill Correspondent.

Terry Murphy has been promoted to Director of Programming from Director of Program Operations. His new position includes editorial responsibility for C-SPAN programming.

Sarah Trahern joins the programming department as a Guest Coordinator for C-SPAN's daily call-in programs. Most recently, she was a freelance Assistant Producer for Capitol Broadcast News.

Production

Craig J. Harrington, with five years of service, has been elevated to Studio Production Manager from Master Control Crew Chief. He will supervise master control, studio productions and editing.

Marketing

The marketing department adds Greg Hill as Affiliate Services Coordinator. Prior to this, Mr. Hill was Marketing Promotions Manager for Cable TV Network of New Jersey.

C-SPAN's round-the-clock public affairs offerings are currently available in over 28 million households, via some 2,500 affiliated cable systems.

# #

NEWS FROM:

C-SPAN AMERICA'S NETWORK

Suite 155 • 400 N. Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001

Release: IMMEDIATE
May 18, 1987

Contact: Susan Neal
Nan Gibson
(202) 737-3220

--C-SPAN ANNOUNCES PROMOTIONS AND NEW PERSONNEL--

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- C-SPAN continues its growth with expansion in the programming department and changes in the marketing and production areas. C-SPAN President Paul FitzPatrick recently announced network promotions and additions:

Programming

Carrie Collins, C-SPAN Executive Producer, takes on the additional responsibility of Capitol Hill Correspondent.

Terry Murphy has been promoted to Director of Programming from Director of Program Operations. His new position includes editorial responsibility for C-SPAN programming.

Sarah Trahern joins the programming department as a Guest Coordinator for C-SPAN's daily call-in programs. Most recently, she was a freelance Assistant Producer for Capitol Broadcast News.

Production

Craig J. Harrington, with five years of service, has been elevated to Studio Production Manager from Master Control Crew Chief. He will supervise master control, studio productions and editing.

Marketing

The marketing department adds Greg Hill as Affiliate Services Coordinator. Prior to this, Mr. Hill was Marketing Promotions Manager for Cable TV Network of New Jersey.

C-SPAN's round-the-clock public affairs offerings are currently available in over 28 million households, via some 2,500 affiliated cable systems.

# #

NEWS FROM:

C-SPAN AMERICA'S NETWORK

Suite 155 • 400 N. Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001

Release: IMMEDIATE
May 18, 1987

Contact: Susan Neal
Nan Gibson
(202) 737-3220

--C-SPAN ANNOUNCES PROMOTIONS AND NEW PERSONNEL--

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- C-SPAN continues its growth with expansion in the programming department and changes in the marketing and production areas. C-SPAN President Paul FitzPatrick recently announced network promotions and additions:

Programming

Carrie Collins, C-SPAN Executive Producer, takes on the additional responsibility of Capitol Hill Correspondent.

Terry Murphy has been promoted to Director of Programming from Director of Program Operations. His new position includes editorial responsibility for C-SPAN programming.

Sarah Trahern joins the programming department as a Guest Coordinator for C-SPAN's daily call-in programs. Most recently, she was a freelance Assistant Producer for Capitol Broadcast News.

Production

Craig J. Harrington, with five years of service, has been elevated to Studio Production Manager from Master Control Crew Chief. He will supervise master control, studio productions and editing.

Marketing

The marketing department adds Greg Hill as Affiliate Services Coordinator. Prior to this, Mr. Hill was Marketing Promotions Manager for Cable TV Network of New Jersey.

C-SPAN's round-the-clock public affairs offerings are currently available in over 28 million households, via some 2,500 affiliated cable systems.

# #