

19 March 1993

Dear Mr. Lamb,

Greetings from the land of Knight. I do verily dwell amongst mine enemy, for my loyalty stays true to old Purdue.

A day this past week you wore the tie of the 1st Dragoon Guards (1DG - The Kings Own). It was such a breach of decorum which caused a friend, Herb Wind (ex The New Yorker) to be put upon while watching the British Open. Wearing the tie of the All England Lawn Tennis & Croquet Club still gains admission to during "The Championships" (Wimbledon). Those who pretend to be what they are not must still answer to the authorities; it is only proper.

I had reason to believe you were not a veteran of the 1DG, for after WWII it was amalgamated with "The Buffs" 2DG into the The Kings Dragoon Guards and nephew Dave reports spending time with you at the Phi Gamma house.

As so very many, I much enjoy C Span, and I hope and pray you can continue down the straight and narrow. Such is worth the needed constant effort and vigilance. Thanks and my best wishes.

Sincerely,

P.S. My wife noticed your tie sloped wrong.

[REDACTED]
Bloomington, IN 47401-5259

MR. BRIAN LAMB
"C SPAN"
400 N. CAPITOL #650
WASHINGTON, D.C.
20001