Gentlemen:

Thank God that we finally have someone like Brian Lamb who can do an interview with Ross Perot and do it with respect and dignity.

If my kids see me writing a letter, they ask, "did somebody say something to Ross Perot?" Seems like I'm constantly upset with the rude manner that the media uses to try to trap ^{or} slander Ross.

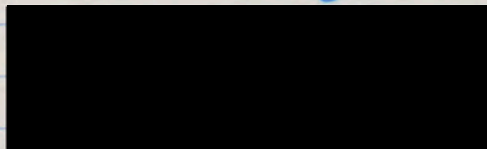

In my opinion, Ross Perot ranks right up there with Bobby Kennedy. They both have devoted themselves to teaching the public about something the official government did not want the public to know. They have both done it unselfishly and at great risk. They both have a deep love for this nation and its people - and compassion that is genuine.

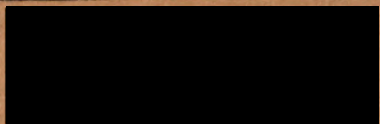

In short, I adored Kennedy and I feel that same devotion for Ross Perot. If our country makes it successfully through this decade - it will be because of Ross' vision, courage, leadership, candor, intellect, and love for the people and ideals of America.

Brian, thank you for your integrity and your professionalism.

Sincerely,
