Dear Mr. Lamb:

I LOVE C-SPAN!!!

I watch it as often as I can, usually before/after work and on weekends. I try never to miss "Journalists Roundtable", which I must watch when it repeats here in California at 6:00 p.m. on Saturdays. I also love "Booknotes".

The best things you've done in the last few months are:

The simulcasts of various talk radio shows. I love talk radio, and truly enjoyed seeing radio personalities from all over the country. I'd love to see more of them!

The Sunday Journal has been a godsend. Now I don't have to frantically try and tape and watch all the Sunday morning shows, because I have C-SPAN to sum them up and highlight them for me.

I also like how you've added the fax numbers for viewers to fax questions and comments, as it allows more viewers' comments to be aired.

And no matter what some complaining viewers may have to say, I think you do a fantastic job with Journalists Roundtable. One reporter I would love to see on that show is Helen Thomas - I think she's fantastic.

All in all, thank you for C-SPAN, and keep up the good work!

Very truly yours,
