

QUOTES PROMO SCRIPT

Journalists from around the country have been prompted by C-SPAN's unique coverage of national events to make the following comments: "C-SPAN's unedited coverage of the House - works!" "C-SPAN is proving every day that objective, honest journalism can be done on television." And, "this is a channel whose total output should be saved for future generations." C-SPAN has been called: "A fiesty, thought provoking cable operation." "In many respects, the best show on the dial." "The channel of choice for citizens with an above-average interest in the workings of government." And, "the best single public service that cable television has to offer." Finally, it has been said that "C-SPAN's on-air tone manages to combine dignity and informality."
