C-SPAN

I love your station and watch whatever is of interest to me.

Our local newspaper and the TV guide to which I subscribe do not list C-SPAN programs, so I have to use remote control to find what is on your station from time to time.

Consequently, I missed the first seven episodes of your excellent "Life Portraits of American Presidents", and discovered the series by flipping the remote. Have not missed an episode since. I remember hearing one day that when current series has run its present episodes you will rerun the series. I would love to see the first seven I've missed. Will you kindly let me know when the second rerun expects to start so I can make sure I'm at home to view them.

I also like your mentioning the 2 or 3 episodes which are to appear in advance. They are usually on Tuesdays and Fridays
but sometimes there is a break.

Thank you kindly if you can furnish the date the reruns will begin.

Sincerely,
