

C-SPAN
WASHINGTON D.C.

CC: T. Murphy ✓

As one who appreciates C-SPAN's comprehensive coverage of important and now important speeches and news conferences, I was surprised and disappointed that you did not broadcast the news conference of Professor Anita Hill in Norman, Oklahoma on Monday, Oct 7. The significance of this event can hardly be overestimated. It was of historic proportions in Washington and electrified the country. Yet the on Monday night you showed some Russian conference of questionable interest and ignored Professor Hill. I called your office about this and was given a rather weak

EXPLANATION THAT YOU
DID NOT HAVE A COPY
OF THE NEWS CONFERENCE
VIDEO TAPE AND THE PROGRAMMING DEPT. WAS IN EFFECT, NOT PARTICULARLY
INTERESTED IN IT. I
WAS REFERRED TO CNN
OR THE BROADCAST NETWORKS
WHICH AS YOU KNOW DO NOT REPEAT SPEECHES OR
NEWS CONFERENCES LIKE
C-SPAN DOES.

IN NOT SHOWING
PROFESSOR HILL'S 10/7
NEWS CONFERENCE C-SPAN
REALLY FLUBBED IT

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]