Dear Don Fleming

Many thanks indeed for your letter + the accompanying gifts for us finalists. I am honored to be "published" in the handsome booklet and in the company of Mr. Crosswhite. His superb essay does C-SPAN proud.

May I beg an additional copy of the booklet for my daughter? She has not taken my fame too seriously and I would like for her to have the tangible evidence.

Locally, Mr. Wayne Right is trying to make the most <sup>of</sup> this, with the newspaper + perhaps a TV interview. I am cooperating graciously. Anything for C-SPAN!

Thank you again for the fun of the contest and for the characteristic stylishness in which it was handed.
