Election Day, 1992

Dear C-Span:

I watched the disucssion among Derek McGinty, Mark Davis, and Jerry Williams the other day. I very much enjoyed the lively debate.

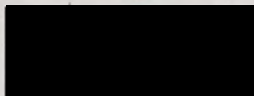

I especially liked Derek's remarks about voting for Perot if we were electing a King....and how his business philosophy wouldn't fit government...."get rid of Maine if it didn't produce." I also liked Mark's frankness and directness... unlike some callers who viewed him as rude, I see him as refreshingly honest and candid. I also liked his facial expressions and asking you to rescue him from the caller with five dogs who insisted upon being heard. I don't see how Mark could support Bush. I even voted for Slick Willy today and I'm only a 7 on ten for him. How can Mark tolerate all of Bush's and Quail's negative campaigning? And what about lack of depth Quail?. Robert Redford said it best when asked by Larry King how he liked being compared with Dan..."I'm insulted...and to put it another way...I'm, insulted." Also the comment about Ozone King is pathetic.. it's a serious issue as I hope we don't find out.

Perot seems okay and I agree with Jerry and his choice but has he listened to Perot's associates? Being pro Anita Hill is one thing, but let's not get absurd. And he is wasting his vote and time interviewing Clinton's ex-mistress.

I haven't heard the election returns yet, but please forward a copy of my letter to these radio talk show hosts. I liked your format and moderator very much.

By the way if Mark or Derek need a visiting reality non-bleeding hearts therapist to take calls from viewers (a la Toni Grant in Los Angeles), give me a try.

Best Regards,

P.S. I also found the show funny in parts!
