Dear Sirs,

One of the things that I like most about C-SPAN is your willingness to do things that are completely unexpected.

Your interviews with Rhodes Scholars and professors from Oxford (telecast yesterday afternoon) was very good. I would like to see more C-SPAN interviews like that, with intelligent people who are willing to speak, but are not seeking publicity for themselves. Similar coverage, from our own universities, would probably be equally interesting.

I only saw two segments of your Oxford program. One thing about the interview with American students at Oxford that bothered me was their uncritical comments about the Reagan administration (they absorbed the idealistic rhetoric from that era, but did not notice the reality of it).

Sincerely,
