Dear C-Span:

Let me start off by saying that I enjoy your programming on about 80%.

I must write and express my concerns on a trend I see that's been increasing, I believe, since the "New Hampshire Primaries". That is when a caller calls in stating that "C-Span appears to be "ONE SIDED". Almost immediately the host appears to get angry and states "If you've watching C-Span you would know that we have had opposing views. In text that sounds OK, but its how that text is said, almost as if they are yelling at the caller. My opinion!

The other problem I have is on one of your recent "Voice call-in", April 15, with Citizen for Tax Justice Michael Ettlinger. He appeared to me to be very arrogant on his answers, that he was better than those calling in. He acted as if he had the answer and everyone who called in were wrong. In fact, he laugh and went to battle with one caller he remembered calling in from a radio show. He also made repeated comments on the "Brown Flat tax" which to me was campaign for Clinton "speech" - I'm an Independent so Clinton or Brown mean nothing in politics to me. Remember the subject was on all kinds of Flat Taxes, but he was continuously talking about the Brown's version of the Flat tax and the VAT which was not the subject matter being discussed. Conflict of interest was Real high, you Folks should have found another person and Firm. IF I turn to your station and see that person I'll switch to another. You see I believe everyone has the right to Express their Feelings, but do not have the right to belittle someone else with an opposing view -! Do you agree?

Let me tell you a little bit about my self, if I may.

I'm a [REDACTED]

and [REDACTED]

Desert Shield/Storm action. AFTER Arriving there I was struck by a moving vehicle and thrown - approx 20 ft landing on my left side. I've been unable to work since that day, [REDACTED]. So since the Anta Hill trial I've watched your stationed approx 3-4 hrs a day.

I'm not saying that I'm an expert, but I've seen the Change. Thank you for allowing me to express my views. Believe me I have other complaints, but that's another letter

Sincerely
[REDACTED]
