Dear Sirs:

The Citizens' Research Foundation is sponsoring a conference entitled "Political Reform in 1994" to be held from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 3, at the Washington Court Hotel, 525 New Jersey Avenue, NW.

We invite C-SPAN to cover the event. The conference will cover election reform, campaign spending and related issues. I enclose a program. Please note that Congressman Bob Livingston will be giving the keynote address at 9:05 a.m. Congressman Al Swift will be the luncheon speaker at 12:45 p.m.

We think the program speaks for itself, and we hope that C-SPAN will have a crew available to cover the event. We request the name of a contact person.

[redacted] and I will be in the office through Friday, April 29. We will be traveling to Washington on Sunday, May 1, and can be reached at the Georgetown Inn, [redacted] beginning on Sunday evening.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours, [redacted]

MEMORANDUM

TO: Members of the Media

FROM: [REDACTED]

DATE: April 22, 1994

I am happy to enclose the program for a Citizens' Research Foundation conference, "Political Reform in 1994," to be held at the Washington Court Hotel, 525 New Jersey Avenue, NW, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, May 3.

Two members of Congress related to the subject of election reform will be on the program along with other knowledgeable people well known in the area of election reform. Congressman Bob Livingston will be the keynote speaker at 9:05 a.m. and Congressman Al Swift will be the luncheon speaker.

We will be distributing background materials at the conference.

We are happy to waive the registration costs for members of the media. It will be necessary, however, to charge $35.00 for each luncheon. We need a head count for reservations. Please call [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] through Friday, April 20. We can be reached at the Georgetown Inn, [REDACTED] beginning Sunday evening, May 1.

We hope to see you at the conference on May 3.
