I watch C-SPAN because C-SPAN is my only hope for truth, first-hand live coverage of decision making within our government in Washington, D.C., and the opportunity to personally participate, by telephone or television, in the discussions relating to topics of vital interest to all Americans.

C-SPAN brings me truth because it brings the action into my home and it comes without censorship. It is truth because it is boring at times, and surprising at times. I am offered insight instead of entertainment.

The live-coverage aspect of C-SPAN is awesome, compared to the only other alternatives, second hand newspaper reports, or no reports at all! I thank God for this unprecedented opportunity.

How do I personally participate? I have the right to call in on my personal telephone during the generous time allowed for citizens and foreign visitors. If I choose not to call, I can have the privilege of hearing others speak their comments from across our entire nation.

I watch C-SPAN, and will continue to do so, because of this great fulfillment of my hope for truth, live coverage, and personal participation. Thank You.
