Dearest Brian:-

This didn't work out the way I thought it would. My family won't let me leave here, especially to see a man even if I love him. I watched you this morning. You mean a lot to me.

I was resident of the month and they took a lot of pictures. Hopefully I can send you one. I tinted my hair its not grey any more. Its light brown.

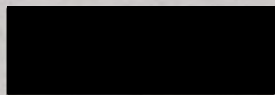

Brian, I appreciate you wearing that red tie but, dear you wear whatever color you want. Did you figure out what it meant? Its political, I don't care what party you belong to just so you vote. I enjoy C - Span so much.

Were those two women in patches?

I wish I had of taken Political science in College instead of what I did. I love politics. I'm sure this election is going to be interesting so do Bush & Kerry. Kerry's wife is not a Heiny she married a Heiny so they have goofed already He was with the Dept. of Aging I remember him. My sister worked for him in Ontario, Oregon sorry Kerry. You goofed! I'll take the Bush

Are you going to have the election on C-span? That was so good about Ronald Reagan. I'm so proud of you & C-span.

you had a women on there one time in a red dress. I don't care who she is, I still want you. Haven't seen anyone since I saw you that I care about just Brian Lamb. I wish you could come to Kansas City so I could be with you. We could stay at my brothers lovely home there. oh! Brian I need you. He's single. Had a girl friend but they split up & she went to Florida.
Love you Brian
Love,
