

Contact: Rayne Pollack
(202) 626-4863
Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602

SECRETARY OF EDUCATION RICHARD RILEY TALKS TO LOCAL
STUDENTS IN C-SPAN-CABLE TV MONTGOMERY HIGH SCHOOL
FORUM

Washington D.C., October 27, 1993 --- C-SPAN, the cable industry's public affairs network and Cable TV Montgomery, serving Montgomery County Maryland, are hosting Secretary of Education Richard Riley for a special "C-SPAN High School Forum" on Monday, November 1, from 1:30 - 2:30 PM (ET). The program will air nationwide on C-SPAN that same Monday evening at 8:00 PM (ET).

Secretary Riley, along with C-SPAN moderator Brian Lamb, will spend an hour with 25 students of Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda, Maryland, discussing the National Service Act, literacy in America, the Clinton Administration's School-to-Work initiative and any other policy topics that the students want to debate. The "C-SPAN High School Forum" series is designed to give students a televised forum in which they can discuss the issues that shape their lives directly with those who shape the policy.

The "C-SPAN High School Forum" is co-sponsored by Cable TV Montgomery as part of Cable TV Montgomery's Cable in the Classroom project.

C-SPAN, available in 58.9 million households, is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.

* * * * *

MEDIA ADVISORYMEDIA ADVISORY

Walt Whitman High School is located on 7100 Whittier Blvd. in Bethesda, Md. From D.C., take River Rd. to Whittier Blvd. Turn right and go up three blocks. The high school is on the left. The press will be hosted in the library.

11:30 - 12:30 -- Tour of the C-SPAN School Bus available
12:30 - 1:30 -- Press reception. Refreshments available
1:30 - 2:30 -- Program with Secretary Riley

For further directions and information, call Virginia Diez (202) 626-4602

-- 30 --

Contact: Rayne Pollack
(202) 626-4863
Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602

SECRETARY OF EDUCATION RICHARD RILEY TALKS TO LOCAL
STUDENTS IN C-SPAN-CABLE TV MONTGOMERY HIGH SCHOOL
FORUM

Washington D.C., October 28, 1993 --- C-SPAN, the cable industry's public affairs network and Cable TV Montgomery, serving Montgomery County Maryland, are hosting Secretary of Education Richard Riley for a special "C-SPAN High School Forum" that will air nationwide on C-SPAN on Monday, Nov. 1 at 8:00 PM (ET). The program will be taped earlier in the day at a time to be announced.

Secretary Riley, along with C-SPAN moderator Brian Lamb, will spend an hour with 25 students of Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda, Maryland, discussing the National Service Act, literacy in America, the Clinton Administration's School-to-Work initiative and any other policy topics that the students want to debate. The "C-SPAN High School Forum" series is designed to give students a televised forum in which they can discuss the issues that shape their lives directly with those who shape the policy.

The "C-SPAN High School Forum" is co-sponsored by Cable TV Montgomery as part of Cable TV Montgomery's Cable in the Classroom project.

C-SPAN, available in 58.9 million households, is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.

--30--

Contact: Rayne Pollack
(202) 626-4863
Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602

SECRETARY OF EDUCATION RICHARD RILEY TALKS TO LOCAL
STUDENTS IN C-SPAN-CABLE TV MONTGOMERY HIGH SCHOOL
FORUM

Washington D.C., October 27, 1993 --- C-SPAN, the cable industry's public affairs network and Cable TV Montgomery, serving Montgomery County Maryland, are hosting Secretary of Education Richard Riley for a special "C-SPAN High School Forum" on Monday, November 1, from 1:30 - 2:30 PM (ET). The program will air nationwide on C-SPAN that same Monday evening at 8:00 PM (ET).

Secretary Riley, along with C-SPAN moderator Brian Lamb, will spend an hour with 25 students of Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda, Maryland, discussing the National Service Act, literacy in America, the Clinton Administration's School-to-Work initiative and any other policy topics that the students want to debate. The "C-SPAN High School Forum" series is designed to give students a televised forum in which they can discuss the issues that shape their lives directly with those who shape the policy.

The "C-SPAN High School Forum" is co-sponsored by Cable TV Montgomery as part of Cable TV Montgomery's Cable in the Classroom project.

C-SPAN, available in 58.9 million households, is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.

* * * * *

MEDIA ADVISORYMEDIA ADVISORY

Walt Whitman High School is located on 7100 Whittier Blvd. in Bethesda, Md. From D.C., take River Rd. to Whittier Blvd. Turn right and go up three blocks. The high school is on the left. The press will be hosted in the library.

11:30 - 12:30 -- Tour of the C-SPAN School Bus available
12:30 - 1:30 -- Press reception. Refreshments available
1:30 - 2:30 -- Program with Secretary Riley

For further directions and information, call Virginia Diez (202) 626-4602

Contact: Rayne Pollack
(202) 626-4863
Virginia Diez
(202) 626-4602

SECRETARY OF EDUCATION RICHARD RILEY TALKS TO LOCAL
STUDENTS IN C-SPAN-CABLE TV MONTGOMERY HIGH SCHOOL
FORUM

Washington D.C., October 28, 1993 --- C-SPAN, the cable industry's public affairs network and Cable TV Montgomery, serving Montgomery County Maryland, are hosting Secretary of Education Richard Riley for a special "C-SPAN High School Forum" that will air nationwide on C-SPAN on Monday, Nov. 1 at 8:00 PM (ET). The program will be taped earlier in the day at a time to be announced.

Secretary Riley, along with C-SPAN moderator Brian Lamb, will spend an hour with 25 students of Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda, Maryland, discussing the National Service Act, literacy in America, the Clinton Administration's School-to-Work initiative and any other policy topics that the students want to debate. The "C-SPAN High School Forum" series is designed to give students a televised forum in which they can discuss the issues that shape their lives directly with those who shape the policy.

The "C-SPAN High School Forum" is co-sponsored by Cable TV Montgomery as part of Cable TV Montgomery's Cable in the Classroom project.

C-SPAN, available in 58.9 million households, is entirely funded by America's cable television companies as a public service.