I'm well aware of the fact that C-SPAN is a corporation that must be concerned with profit. There's nothing wrong with that. How can C-SPAN make more money? The answer is very simple. Format a program called "The People's Debate" or "The Peoples Press". I would air it at the same time as CNN's "Crossfire". Have one person represent the right, one the center and another the left. It's most important that the person representing the left be a real left winger.

If you try to use a nerd like Mike Kinsley to represent the left you'll ruin it. If you all could create such a program called "The People's Debate" or the "Peoples Press" you'd run circles around "Crossfire". For those of us that are politically mature, we laugh and snicker at "Crossfire". It's pitiful, false, phoney and a piece of garbage. It's a joke that's both funny and not funny.

How stupid does John Sammons actually think the American people are? Does he think the people believe that he's debating left wingers on "Crossfire"? Give me a break! No I'm not a left winger, I'm a "Christian Conservative" that has read and studied what the right, left and center has to say. None of them can fool me or any of my teachers and students. Therefore it is vital to the survival of democracy that we have a check and balance in the media. I don't know about you, I'd pay a million bucks to watch Farrakhan debate someone like Pat Buchanan on TV. It would be "The Debate of the Century". Anyone that can't understand that has absolutely no imagination. Use your imagination C-SPAN! That's what TV is all about. You should have political satire shows. Make fun of Dole, Reno, Helms and Albright.

Wake up C-SPAN!!! Everyone is laughing at politics!!! Join in on the fun. Everyone knows that Nerd Gingrich is feeding us a crock of shit! Join the American spirit of making fun of our elected "leaders", Admit it, the House & Senate are so boring, they put people in a coma. Then they cause rigor mortis and gangreen to set in. Getting back on a more serious note, it is of the utmost importance that we the American people have the right to demand that our press present us with several points of view, and not just the views of Democrats + Republicans. God bless America, and God bless freedom of speech and the press for everyone!

Sincerely
