Well you finally showed your bias Mr. Lant. After having asked the Presidents supporters to raise their hands you interviewed only one President Bush pupil.

That was really one-sided. Especially the fact that the liberal teacher formed these pupils minds.

To have her get up and raise her preference should not have been done. Now, I have no place on Television to get an unbiased opinion.

Since C-Span was my only outlet I felt very sad.

That Susan had already shown her bias, I overlooked that, but Mr. Lant surprised me.

People will catch on. If you had showed this program in the evening where more people would be watching.
The bias would really come thru.
