Dear Brian Lamb -

I usually enjoy the programs that you turn over to regional radio stations, but I just turned off (in disgust!) the one you are showing tonight from Tampa, Fla. I really wanted to stay on Til Pat Buchanan came on [tho I'm a Tsongas man], but I couldn't stand to listen to that big slob in the black shirt any longer!

He had a call from a man in New England + he [Jay Marvin] interrupted ~~me~~ every other sentence the man made! I wanted to hear what the man had to say [not what those other two guys, Rzy + Howard, thought] but would ol' bulldozer let him finish a sentence? Not on your life! We never got the full thought or point the man was trying to make, and ol' black shirt ridiculed him to boot (on a mumbled aside "no, he isn't going to answer the question!" How could he, with all the interruptions?!). Never mind that the caller was paying for all these interruptions & idiotic behavior!

I was so Frustrated For the man, & For myself, who wanted to hear the point that he was trying to make and what happened?! ol' loud mouth cut him off with ~~an~~ "Sorry! We're out of Time" brush off. God! I was Furious! So I just zapped him to oblivion with my remote and switched to PBS' opera Gals to sooth my nerves. [Much relief immediately].

Please! Don't ever make the mistake of having that immature bunch on again. You probably didn't know what you were getting into, I'm sure CSPAN was cringing, too!

See you Tomorrow!

A Faithful Fan.
