Washington, D.C.

Dear Brian:

I just wanted to thank you so much for taking the time to give [REDACTED] and me a tour of C-Span. It was great to see the inner-workings of C-Span, and most importantly, it was a pleasure to meet you. You must be extremely proud of the development and progress of your company, as it is certainly a magnificent one. The fact that you took time from your busy schedule to personally escort Shorna and me through your building, I can only extend my greatest appreciation.

Should you find yourself traveling back towards your hometown of Lafayette in the near future, I hope you will feel free to contact me, as I would be more than happy to have lunch or dinner with you, and I know Shorna feels the same way. Again, thank you so much for your time, and of course, your autographed book. Both will be cherished.

Warmest regards,
