Dear Brian:

Once again C-SPAN was THE highlight of the week-in Washington for the Cornell students. During their presentation to the entire class yesterday, the excitement over having had the opportunity to be at C-SPAN and meet with you was contagious. And the two student teaching assistants who had been there last year were very eager to hear every detail, to make sure this year's students didn't miss anything! Thank you so very much for your wonderful contribution to a unique experiential week-in-Washington.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,
