

Mr Lamb Today 12/2 I listened to part of the Judy Backrach show. As a former listener of McNeal Leher when the show became one hour and was believed as a balanced view of the news I now feel C. span is also on the way down.
Even before the 3 lines I was getting this impression.
When I think of Jewel, Wood Travel Office and others I can't work up any sympathy for these picket line workers.
Also in my opinion the quality of opinions is far less than previous.
I would like to listen in when these calls are answered and I think the quality of opinions is far less than before.
