Dear Sir - Congratulations on C-Span's gavel-to-gavel coverage of the Democratic Convention. It is fascinating & I look forward to the Republicans, also. In recent years, the major networks have "covered" the Convention by focussing their cameras for six hours straight on their news commentator, on his or her face, with never a glimpse of the podium actions. No wonder they lost viewers! You people (coops) at C-Span are bringing us the real Convention. 'Tis great!
