Dear Mr. Perron:

As usual, I watch C-SPAN every morning before I go to work.

May 1st I was deprived of the sound as your company chose to test ^{deleting} the testimony of the IRS Commissioner & Senator Moynihan.

To say I was angry is putting it mild. With the rates your company charges, your testing could be done after 9 PM and before 4 AM (Washington Journal time). I live with a lady from my Church and watch her TV.

I am a born and bred easterner and have a college education. Have worked most of my life, (since 16 years old), so I'm not dumb as to business economics. (am 64)

I hopefully, you will not let this happen again.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

cc: Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan
