to understand these [REDACTED] mansion, and its visitors refer too. 44% are for impeachment is unbelievable! There are some strong Republicans who have hated, yes I mean hated Clinton since he first got into office so of course they are very much for impeachment, yet the moderate Republicans, Democrats, and those younger americans who have no special party are very much against impeachment. So in and around the Streatorland area citizens are furious over this whole impeachment citation. Working in my sister's beauty Salon I can truthfully say only a few, yes a very few desire impeachment where as everyone else from age twenty two - Eighty three think it should never have been happened. Looking into anyone's personal life is a disgrace. Others claim Newt remained as majority leader of the house with 13 counts of perjury against him and of he received was a fine and a slap on the hand. Men, women, and young adults are here staying if they had the money

President Clinton

It is hard for us to understand these Polls your station, and its visitors refer too. 44% are for impeachment is unbelievable! There are some strong Republicans who have hated, yes I mean hated Clinton since he first got into office so of course they are very much for impeachment, yet the moderate Republicans, Democrats, and those younger americans who have no special party are very much against impeachment. So in and around the Streatorland area citizens are furious over this whole impeachment citation. Working in my sister's beauty Salon I can truthfully say only a few, yes a very few desire impeachment where as everyone else from age twenty two - Eighty three think it should never have been happened. Looking into anyones personal life is a disgrace. Others claim Newt remained as majority leader of the house with 13 counts of perjury against him and of he received was a fine and a slap on the hand. Men, women, and young adults are here staying if they had the money or if it wasn't happening at Xmas time everyone would take a few days off work and fly to Washington in protest. But being so new the holidays, and the younger adults being also young parents can't just pick up leave their children at this time of year. Besides very extra money is being spent on presents. And of course we workers and of course the owner [redacted] can't simply close shop and leave customers in the lurch. So these polls are from very strong Republicans who would want impeachment no matter what the cause. Stepping in traffic against a light would probably do the trick one customer stated. None of us have voted in any polls so the numbers are not correct. And it causes us to question these so called polls. Having a nephew in the navy has a more concerned about his safety than any crazy impeachment going on at this time. The whole thing (impeachment) is about a sexual matter and Linda Tripp, Starr, and Galsberg should be the ones on trial for their underhanded dealings.
