Dear Brian,

I read Road to the White House 1992 and thank you for it. However my husband and I feel that Road to the White House 1996 is rather silly.

What C-SPAN should be following right now is what is going on in the Clinton ADMINISTRATION. The regular press follows nothing but hair cuts, travel stuff, etc. nothing but hair cuts, travel stuff, etc. counting, etc etc and you just keep interviewing congressmen about the SAME TRIVIA The regular press keeps on.

What is going on in the various part of the CABINET in connection with REINVENTING GOVERNMENT? This could be a big story, and no one is covering it. (one each)

You covered the staff meetings, with Agriculture and Transportation, but that's been it.

What's Babbitt doing? Shalala? O'Leary? Reich? ^{Con}Brown? Christopher? Bentsen? Carol Brown? Jesse Brown? Cisneros? Riley? Regan?

These are the things the public needs to know, NOW! NOT who's running for President in 1996. At least wait till after the 1994 election on that.

PLEASE!
