To whom it may concern;

I felt compelled to write to you, in regards to your recent coverage, (or NON-Coverage of nude people) on April 25, 1993. The expression of free speech, has gone too far. If these individuals wish to express their lesbian, gay, rights, let them do so , in the privacy of their own homes. The future would only bring chaos. Can you imagine the future? Everyone would be walking around nude, bringing more havoc, more violence, etc.

Not only am I a Christian, and try to live my life as such, and my life is a daily witness of same. But, I try to screen TV shows, for my teenagers. I feel I am the one who has to check all channels, TV Guides, and worry still, while watching programs, for any possible incidents of nudity/profanity. I know it is out there, in the world. But IF I DO NOT WANT IT IN MY HOME, THEN I DO NOT HAVE TO HAVE IT FORCED ONTO ME BY TV PRODUCERS.

I can not sit down to watch any sitcoms, without seeing or hearing something that is sickening. If you had to do coverage, and I use the term lightly, you could have written this in newspapers.

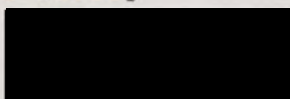

Where will this stop? People have got to take a stand somewhere. It should be with TV producers, and I think it should be started now. Stop the junk, nudity, profanity, sexual innuendos, and children in sitcoms yelling at their parents, as if they are the adults.

I was scanning through the channels, and was shocked at the program on Gays Rights. I am glad I don't have small children in the house! It is bad enough to have to see repulsive sitcoms, and MTV, let alone, more trash such as you've shown. I paid to have MTV removed from my cable TV. I think that should have been a DISCOUNT instead!

Movie producers, and TV producers should be made to clean up their act. What about freedom of speech for religious programs? That would probably be voted down. Yet some people would find that more appropriate, than what your company shows.

I hope in the future you people will be able to ascertain what is newsworthy, and what is inappropriate viewing.
