

6:23 am, Sun, 7/11/99. Dear Norman Podhoretz, I should have waited one more day to write as I just read what sums up my lifelong attraction to Judaism: "Behold, I will put my law within them, & I will write it upon their hearts, & I will be their God, & they will be my people". Somewhere in my past I know I have a Jewish ancestor. I have no idea what your 5 books are about but you should write one that pays homage to this Jewish ethical tradition. (If a stranger can't be bossy, who can?) Incidentally I loved your Jewish but what about my humility?
Joke, Humility must be important to you, you've told the joke many times. (And you're not all that comfortable telling jokes, right?) You could write about actions in your life where you either acted ethically or compromised.

C-SPAN's gonna get aggravated if I keep writing you there so at least write me back your address so I can indulge my fantasy of being a few. Regards,

Richardson, TX 75080

Please forward, thanks in advance.
