
DUBLIN 22
IRELAND. 19th July 1988.

Dear Ms Lamb,

I must congratulate C-SPAN and SKY for their wonderful insight into the American political system. The fact I am totally exhausted staying up until 3am is a measure of its fascination for me.

Having watched the primaries and then the caucus's I was thrilled to find your network showing the entire convention. I'm involved in politics in Ireland and belong to the Progressive Democrats you perhaps can understand my interest in this and the Republican convention.

However, I do have some questions 1) Why is it the prerogative of the presidential candidate to select a running mate, where did this guy Sen. Benton come from? does he have to be selected as well? There are so many questions I have but cannot put them all down on paper.

Overleaf

By the way let me apologize for your called who "gave-out" to you for mispronouncing Cook, "it could happen to a Bishop"

Could you send me the T.V. guide and election buttons.

Thank you once again and perhaps we can look forward to more of the same.

Yours faithfully

 DUBLIN 22
IRELAND. 19th July 1988.

Dear Mr Lamb,

I must congratulate C-SPAN and SKY for their wonderful insight into the American political system. The fact I am totally exhausted staying up until 3am is a measure of its fascination for me.

Having watched the primaries and then the caucus I was thrilled to find your network showing the entire convention. I'm involved in politics in Ireland and belong to the Progressive Democrats you perhaps can understand my interest in this and the Republican convention.

However, I do have some questions 1) Why is it the prerogative of the presidential candidate to select a running mate, where did this guy Sen. Benton come from? does he have to be selected as well? There are so many questions I have but cannot put them all down on paper.

Barclay

By the way let me apologize for your called who "gave-out" to you for mispronouncing Cook, "it could happen to a Bishop"

Could you send me the T.V. guide and election buttons.

Thank you once again and perhaps we can look forward to more of the same.

Yours faithfully,

the presidential candidate to select a running mate, where did this guy Sen. Bentyson come from? does he have to be selected as well? There are so many questions I have but cannot put them all down on paper.

By the way let me apologize for your called who "gave-out" to you for mispronouncing Cook, "it could happen to a Bishop"

Could you send me the T.V. guide and election buttons.

Thank you once again and perhaps we can look forward to more of the same.

Yours faithfully

Having watched the primaries and then the caucus I was thrilled to find your network showing the entire convention I'm involved in politics in Ireland and belong to the Progressive Democrats you perhaps can understand my interest in this and the Republican convention.

However, I do have some questions 1) Why is it the prerogative of Overleaf